

Knowledge into Action - Training Summit Session Aims

	Sessions available
Session 1	Accreditation, Widening your Landscape. What else? Who else? This session aims to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Provide trainers with a wider understanding of the range and diversity of awarding bodies across our sector</li><li>• Aid trainers to identify awarding bodies that offer accredited opportunities that more comfortably meet the needs of their learners and consider the nature and capacity of their organisations</li><li>• Advise trainers and training organisations how to collaborate to reduce cost and improve outcomes</li></ul>
Session 2	Upping Your Training Game This session aims to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Provide trainers with realistic and useful advice on progression routes within the training sector</li><li>• Demonstrate approaches that can strengthen a trainer's offer to their learners and commissioning organisations</li><li>• Look at practical strategies to enhance your offer through non-training specific professional development</li></ul>
Session 3	Revisiting Equality and Diversity in the Training Space This session aims to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Critically explore emerging equality and diversity issues for trainers</li><li>• Explore the role and responsibility of trainers in light of current equality legislation</li><li>• Provide useful strategies and tools to help trainers manage equality and diversity challenges in their work.</li></ul>

All 3 sessions will be delivered once to all in attendance, offering an amazing learning and development opportunity.

www.gup.org.uk/trainingsummit

